

Charlotte Hanna is originally from London, United Kingdom and has had a varied career in Dance and Musical Theatre over the years.

Charlotte graduated from the prestigious 'Laine Theatre Arts' in 2012 with a National Trinity Diploma in dance alongside many other credits including her DDI ISTD Ballet teaching certificate.

Charlotte went on to train with Scintilla Dance Company in London and has worked on many shows and pantomimes up and down the UK as a principal dancer and understudy to leading roles, working with leading West End Producers 'Michael Harrison' and 'Jonny Bowles'.

Charlotte has also danced at Wembley Arena in the opening of the FA Cup Final. Charlotte's film credits include 'The Muppets...Again' and 'Marvels Avengers, Age of Ultron' where she featured as a dancer.

Charlotte has worked on various cruise ships over the years including Cunard's flagship 'Queen Mary 2' and Princess Cruises 'Crown Princess' and flagship 'Regal Princess' in which she was cast in Stephen Schwartz's shows 'Magic to Do' and 'Born to Dance'. Upon leaving ships Charlotte also assisted casting for cruises in Sydney. Charlotte has worked with many students, dance schools and programs over the years in both England and Australia sharing her love for dance and technique. Charlotte continues to share her passion for dance with many students in Sydney.