

LESLEY SCOTT

Lesley is the Managing Director of Dance Encore Productions and Principal of the Dance Encore Performing Arts Studio located in Sydney.

With 45 years as a Professional Dancer, Producer, Director, Choreographer, and Adjudicator, her career has included touring the world with husband Bruce as world renowned adagio performers. Dance Encore Productions began operations in 1980 supplying professional entertainment at venues throughout Australia, New Zealand, South East Asia, Japan and South Korea.

The Dance Encore Performing Arts Studio opened in 2004 in Bexley NSW with Lesley as Studio Owner and Principal. The studio specializes in all Performing Arts genres.

Lesley also teaches at The McDonald College in Musical Theatre, Dance & Acrobatics.

Lesley has an extensive background in Ballet, having studied RAD with Joan and Monica Halliday up to and including Advanced. She is now proud to be one of the Creators of the ADA (Australasian Dance Association) Ballet and Pointe Syllabus. She became an Examiner for ADA in 2016, a Director in 2018, and has been the President of ADA since 2019.

During the past 40 years, Lesley has adjudicated Scholarships and Eisteddfods in multiple genres, and always finds it so rewarding to see young dancers thriving and pursuing their love of dance.

Registered ADA Teacher & Examiner

Diploma of Dance Teaching and Management

Diploma of Musical Theatre

Creator of ADA Ballet and Pointe Syllabus

Creator of ADA AcroDance Syllabus